IN DANGER OF EXTINCTION

Massacre of Christians in Asiatic Turkey is Becoming the Worst in the World's History

Smyrna, Turkey, April 29.—One hundred Protestant missionaries and converts are reported to have been killed by a Moslem mob in the burning of a church at Adana. The Franciscan monks and an Italian family of missionaries are reported to be the only Christians who escaped the massacre. At Kassala the consuls declare that the governor general could have prevented the atrocities at Adana but that he refused to act and it is believed that he actually encouraged the mob. Every mission center in Asia Minor is in danger of extinction. Interior towns are imploring that troops be sent as another massacre sweeping east from Adana is feared. This is judging from all reports, the worst massacre of Christians in the world's history and even worse is impending. The atrocities reached the wildest excesses. Christians were hunted like wolves and slain in the most barbarous fashion. A horde of Moslems is approaching Beirut.

At Salonica he will be placed in a castle and kept under guard so that he may not foment trouble among the few remaining true to him.

SOUTH LAKE WEIR

Mrs. Thomas G. Baker, whose serious illness was mentioned in last week's Star, passed to the higher life Friday morning, the 23rd, after a long and painful illness, at the age of 74 years. Her only son, Dr. Wm. M. Baker, a prominent dentist of New York City, was telegraphed for and arrived Monday evening, but unfortunately contracted a severe cold on the way, which developed into pneumonia, and at this writing is seriously ill. He is attended by Drs. Henry and Jones.

Dr. Baker's wife arrived several days before the end came and assisted in administering to the wants of the invalid. Mrs. B. W. Goodell, a visitor of Mrs. Baker and her husband from Fredonia, N. Y., have spent the winter with Mrs. and M. Baker and Mrs. Goodell has rendered every loving care that skill and affection could suggest. Mrs. Baker left beside her husband and son, two sisters, one of whom lives in Brocton, N. Y. Messrs. McIver & MacKay, funeral directors of Ocala, embalmed the body and prepared it for burial, which was at the Forest Hills cemetery on Wednesday afternoon, the 28th. Rev. Lawrence Jones conducting the service.

Miss A. M. Woodbury, of Medford, Mass., and Mr. E. D. Roberts, of Hartford, Conn., the last of the season's guests of the Pine Hill House left for their New England homes the last of the week.

Mrs. A. M. Reed, Mrs. Wallace W. Reed and Mrs. P. M. Oleson, who were in attendance at the State Christian Endeavor Convention in Tampa, returned on the night train Saturday and report having had a royal time. They visited St. Petersburg on Saturday, and, of course, were delighted with the place, as every one is.

The deferred Easter service of the Union Sunday school was held on Sunday morning under direction of the superintendent, Mr. P. M. Oleson, with the following program:

Hymn, "Calvary."
Prayer, Rev. L. Jones.
Solo, "Down Low at My Redeemer's Feet"—Miss Julia Sigmon.

Solo, arranged, "Jesus Lover of My Soul"—Miss Grace Willard.

Offering.
Hymn, "Lead Me Savior."
Address, Rev. L. Jones.
Hymn, "Just as I am."
Benediction.

The floral decorations were elaborate and beautiful, and were arranged mainly by Mrs. J. F. Sigmon, to whose efforts was also much due the carrying out of the excellent program. Mrs. Carrie Gates played as usual and her playing gave much pleasure.

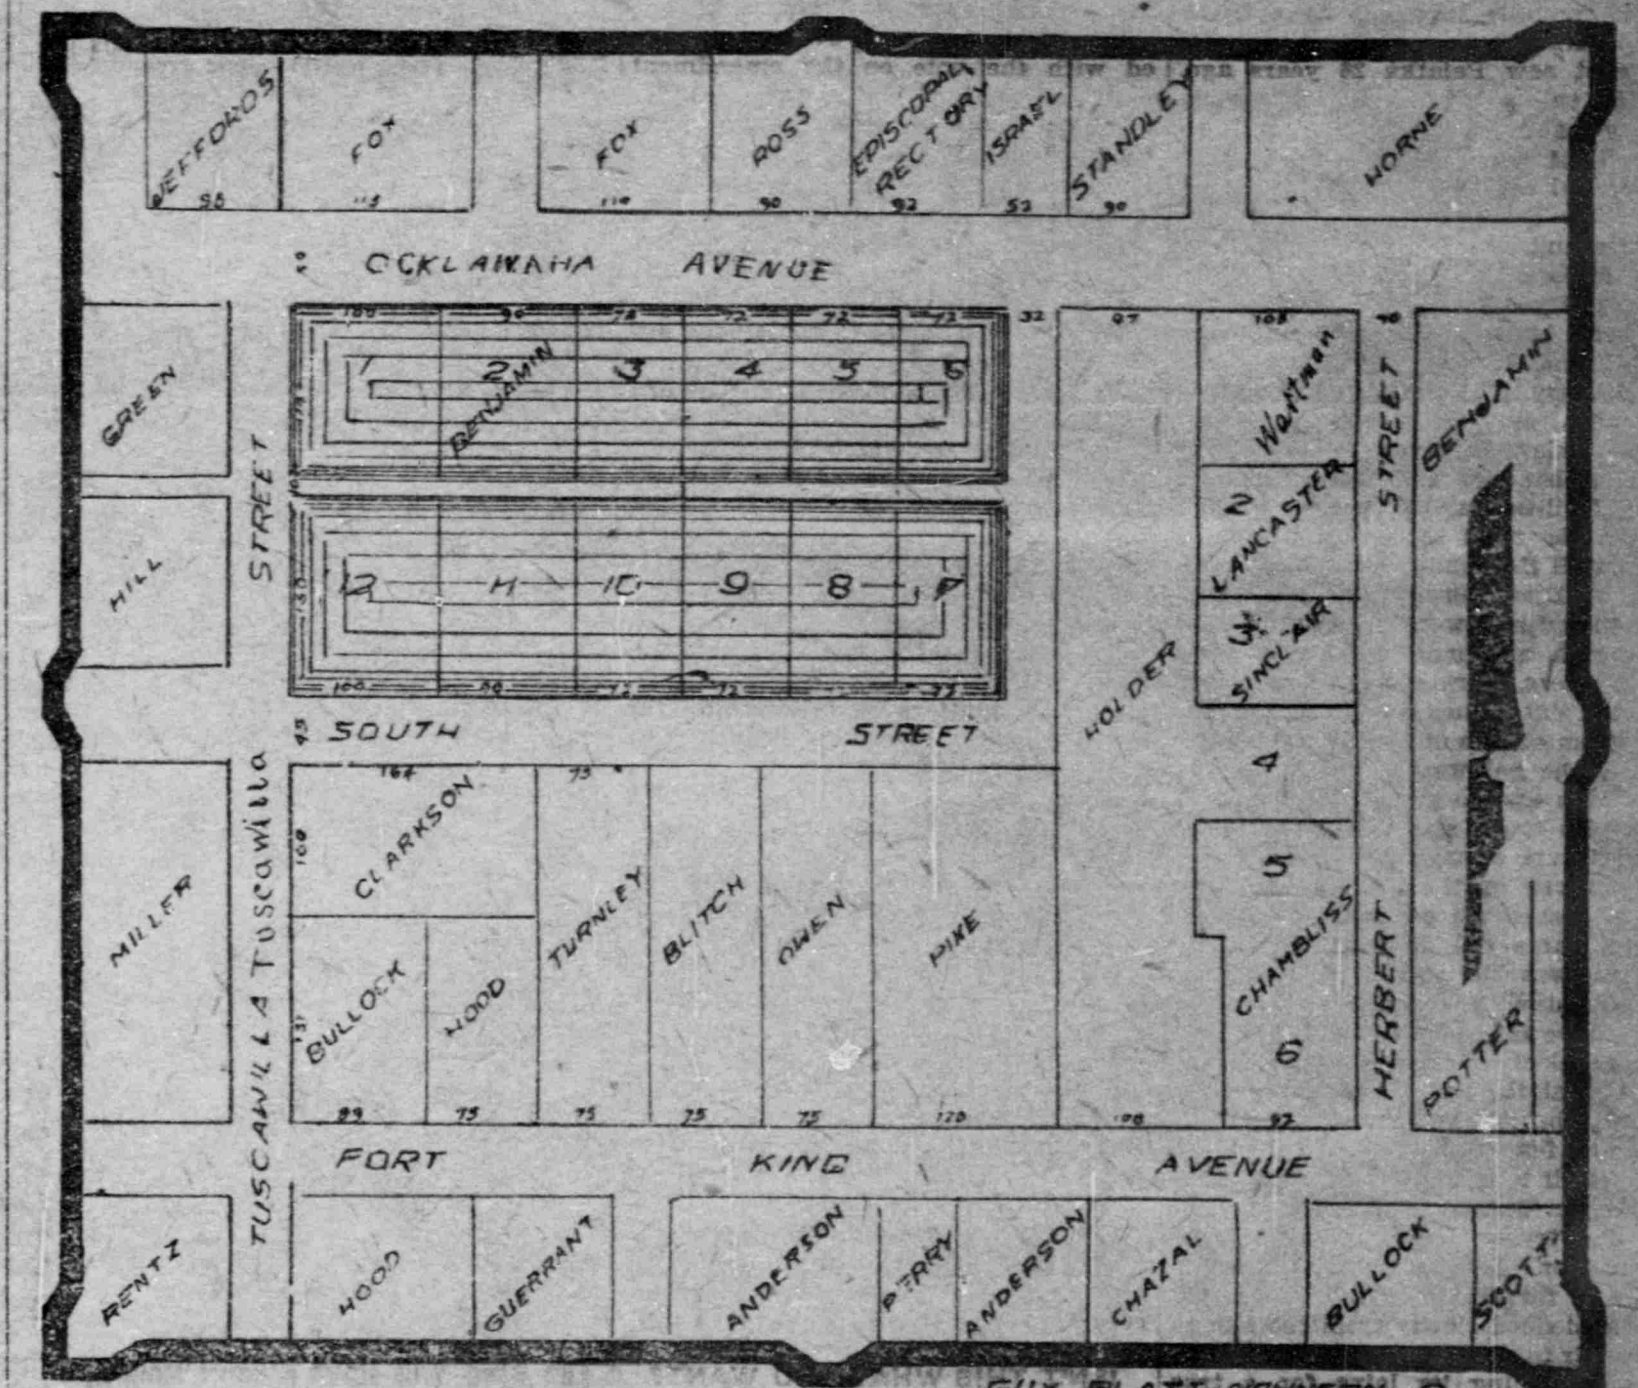

All the young folks who have had "dime books" for the collection of funds for repairs on the school house are requested to turn them in next Sunday, when the amount collected by each one will be announced.

MONEY COMES IN BUNCHES
to A. A. Chisholm, of Tredwell, N. Y., now. His reason is well worth reading: "For a long time I suffered from indigestion, torpid liver, constipation, nervousness, and general debility," he writes. Now I can attend to business every day. It's a wonderful medicine." Infallible for stomach, liver, kidneys, blood and nerves. 50c at all druggists.
